AGENDA

Middleton Disaster Response Plan

March 8, 2016

Desired Outcome:

Learn incident procedure, and receive instruction for individuals

The First Thing - Victor Islas, Middleton Rural Fire District

Identify the disaster size, scope and location Declare an incident Command Post (location)

Assemble Incident Command Team to proceed with Unified Command

Determine if Command Post is stable or relocate

Contact the Emergency Operations Coordinator (if not present at Command Post)

Establish an "Incident Action Plan"

Care for Self, Family and Neighbor - Mayor Darin Taylor

At time of severe weather, emergency, or disaster:

If applicable, turn off natural gas, power, and/or water to the house

Check status of people at home

Place green, red, and black papers in front window or door

Now:

Register for Emergency Notification System - canyonco.org yellow button at bottom right

BBQ working

5-gal propane tank, and one extra

Indoor heat source

72 hour kit (three days) - Victor Islas

Communication – Mayor Taylor

Emergency:

If phones working:

Phone, # from EOC upon disaster, mobile dispatch

If phones not working: City parks near restrooms

Information Dissemination:

email if working, City parks, CERT Team, word of mouth

Evacuate or Stay at Home

Evacuate if:

House is at risk by flood

Low temperature and no heat source

When Ordered

Q&A

Incident Response Priorities:

Declare a Disaster

City-wide, County-wide, or State-wide Finance and Document Agencies, Equipment and Man-hours

Maintain Order

Middleton Police, Canyon County Sheriff, and Idaho State Police

Assemble EOC Team

Incident Commander

Establish Communication

Unified Command

Stabilize and Repair Utilities

Unified Command

City Public Works, Canyon Highway District No. 4

Establish open traffic routes

Idaho Transportation Department, Flood Control District #10

Human Life and Safety

Middleton Rural Fire District

Assist Individuals

Family, neighbors and churches

Communication Dissemination Unified Command, Public Information Officers, Media Center

Meetings:

April 14, 2016

7:00 pm

Seventh Day Adventist Flood Response Simulation