With recent and predicted snow storms for the Treasure Valley, the city street maintenance staff has begun clearing snow and sanding intercessions when there is at least two inches of accumulation and it is coupled with freezing rain and or freezing temperatures. Plowing priorities have been put in place in order to get kids to school, residents to work, and to allow clear access for emergency and first responders.

The following arterial and collector roads, major intersections, schools, and crosswalks are the priority:

- N. Middleton Road
- S. Middleton Road
- Willis Road
- S. Hawthorne by Post Office
- Cemetery Road
- S. Cemetery Road/Sawtooth Lake Drive/Crane Creek
- Hartley Lane

Second priority roads include

- Concord
- Willow
- Boise
- Cornell
- Dewey
- Hawthorne
- Triumph
- Minot
- S. Viking
- Piccadilly/Piccadilly Park

Note: State Highway 44 is under the jurisdiction of Idaho Transportation Department. Emmett, Purple Sage, Duff Lane, Lansing Lane and Kingsbury roads are the jurisdiction of Canyon 4 Highway District.

Sidewalks:
